

Cultivating Cannabis

Getting Started Lesson Homework

- Look around your home to identify the best place to grow cannabis.
- Identify the best source of compost in your area and if possible, start a compost bin of your own!
- Decided if you will grow in ground or in pots and either start preparing your ground or get your pots.
- Check your water! If you only have city water, research filters and/or think about a rainwater collection system.